Saturday 1st – Trinity Academy of Ballet

Members of Trinity Academy of Ballet in Springdale will deliver a special dance performance set to inspirational and devotional music. Trinity Academy works to train girls and young women in the art of ballet with the purpose of glorifying God. 3pm PH

Tuesday 4th – Health and Wellbeing Seminar with Dr. Helen McElree: The Neurobiology of Aggression

Join Dr. McElree as she explores the complex neuronal circuitry responsible for aggression, and the challenges this behavior poses for mental health providers and the general public. Today's discussion will address how the latest findings on aggression are being used to advance clinical diagnostics and therapeutic interventions. 2pm C (W)

Thursday 6th – Sneak Peek Performance by NWA Ballet Theatre

Meet Artistic Director Ryan Jolicoeur-Nye and members of the NWA Ballet Theatre company as they perform a sneak peek of their upcoming NEXT: Classically Contemporary Dance performance on June 13 and 14 at Arend Arts Center in Bentonville. 7pm PH (W)

Tuesday 11th – BTV Hosts Walton Art Center's 2019 Artosphere Festival Performance: Sam Reider and The Human Hands

Butterfield Trail Village is pleased to host an exclusive performance from Walton Arts Center's 2019 Artosphere: Arkansas' Arts + Nature Festival – Sam Reider and The Human Hands! The Human Hands is a Brooklyn-based ensemble of acoustic musicians led by jazz pianist turned roots musician Reider, who is redefining American music with the accordion. Since the release of the debut record Too Hot To Sleep in 2018, The Human Hands has appeared at major festivals throughout the nation, performed live on the BBC, and completed a ten-day tour of the United Kingdom. Called "staggeringly virtuosic" by RnR Magazine, the band includes musicians Alex Hargreaves on violin, Eddie Barbash on saxophone, Dominick Leslie on mandolin, Roy Williams on guitar, and Dave Speranza on bass. As part of WAC's Artosphere Festival, Reider and The Hands will perform at Thorncrowne Chapel in Eureka Springs, Mildred B. Cooper Memorial Chapel in Bella Vista — and now at Butterfield's own state-of-the-art Performance Hall. 2pm PH (W)

Wednesday 12th – The Celebration Singers Youth Choir Presents: Forever Friends

This talented youth choir from First United Methodist Church in Katy, Texas, will perform as part of its Summer Youth Choir Tour. The Celebration Singers have been touring the U.S. for 25 years, and Forever Friends will feature members on both vocals and instruments. 2:30pm PH (W)

Wednesday 12th – Dine with Us: Cheers at the Old Post Office

Enjoy an incredibly delicious meal right off the wood fire grill! Cheers uses only select mesquite wood to ensure every item has just the right amount of smoky flavor. From classic steaks like ribeye and filet mignon to lamb chop lollipops and jalapeño-stuffed quail breast, don't miss a chance to dine at the new Cheers at the Old Post Office on the downtown Fayetteville square. Depart 4pm R $ (W)

Thursday 13th – Burial Excavations at Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site with Anthropologist Jerry Rose

BTV resident and veteran anthropologist Jerry Rose hosts this fascinating presentation into notable archeological digs at Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site. Located at what today is southern Illinois near East St. Louis, Cahokia is considered the largest and most complex archaeological site north of the great pre-Columbian cities in Mexico – and just a single burial mound yielded the remains of more than 250 individuals. Rose, a retired University of Arkansas professor who was among the founding faculty of the UA's prestigious King Fahd Center for Middle Eastern Studies, has excavated tombs and burial sites in the Mississippi, Arkansas and Red River Valleys and in Jordan and Egypt in the Middle East. His work at Cahokia Mound No. 72 helped define his career. 7pm PH (W)

Friday 14th – Museum Travel Series: Oklahoma Aquarium

The Oklahoma Aquarium opened its doors in May 2003, the dream of founders Dr. P.R. Ramey and Doug Kemper. The magnificent 72,000-square-foot facility features eight major exhibit areas including sites that focus on invertebrates, Oklahoma species, Ozark habitats, a coral reef and sharks. Browse through the exhibits today and enjoy lunch at the museum's Coral Reef Café. Admission is $14pp, payable in the BTV Program Office. Deadline to sign up is June 12. Depart 8:30am R $ (W)

Friday 14th – NWA Ballet Theatre Presents NEXT: Classically Contemporary Dance

NWA Ballet Theatre is a multidimensional arts organization that is exciting audiences around the region with vibrant, innovative contemporary ballet. NEXT features original choreographic works by Artistic Director Ryan Jolicoeur-Nye, performed by a company of professional dancers from around the country. Arts advocate Jenni Taylor Swain will be aboard the BTV bus for a cultural chat on the way to Arend Arts Center. Tickets are $15pp for a group of 10 or more and available at the BTV Program Office through June 12. 5pm AAC R $ (W)

Friday 14th – Good Medicine in Concert

Please join Ellis Ralph and Judi Neal of Good Medicine as they present an evening of folk music. Their songs are soothing and tell many stories. Enjoy a mix of popular folk tunes and some originals, too.

7pm PH (W)

Thursday 20th – Lunch Outing to The Wooden Spoon

The Wooden Spoon in Gentry has been serving made-from-scratch food for nearly 20 years. The breads and soups are all homemade, and the home-style desserts change daily. The food, atmosphere and service are all excellent.

Two Departure Times: 10:15am and 10:45am R $ (W)

Monday 24th – Arkansas Winds Performance: Red, White and Blue

Join the Arkansas Winds Community Concert Band for a special performance of patriotic numbers. This 80-piece, all volunteer orchestra founded in 1988 is led by Eldon Janzen, professor emeritus and former director of bands at the University of Arkansas.

Tuesday 25th – French Countryside Dinner Party

The beauty of the French countryside will be yours to experience at this evening's elegant affair featuring delectable French cuisine, décor and music. Guests will enjoy a presentation of colorful photos taken along the Seine River from Paris to Normandy during a recent Village Tours excursion to France! Highlights will include the City of Lights, Rouen, Claude Monet's garden in Giverny, and events commemorating this year's 75th anniversary of D-Day. Tickets are $10.50pp, and reservations are required. Residents may sign up at the BTV Transportation Desk. Flex dollars may be used for resident tickets only. 5:30pm PH R $

Wednesday 26th – Lunch Bunch to the Dutch Pantry

Join us for a leisurely drive to Chouteau, Okla., for a visit to the Dutch Pantry restaurant, serving the best in delicious Amish buffet items and homemade desserts.

Depart 10am R $ (W)

Thursday 27th – BTV Foundation Charitable Giving Seminar

For more than 30 years, the Butterfield Trail Village Foundation has generated support for a number of important projects and services that benefit Village residents and staff. As part of the Foundation's 2019 Annual Campaign, residents are invited to a free interactive seminar explaining various ways to give, and how to receive the maximum advantages for your tax-deductible gifts. The seminar will be led by Stefanie Marsden of the Texas Presbyterian Foundation, along with Hugh Kincaid, former director of planned giving at the University of Arkansas' Office of Development, and Lisa Higgins, CPA. Kincaid and Higgins are members of the BTV Foundation Board of Directors. 7pm PH (W)
