

BUTTERFIELD LIFE

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

EVENTS • PROGRAMS • ACTIVITIES

Butterfield
TRAIL VILLAGE

MAY 2019

M A Y V I L L A G E E V E N T S

Additional Details About Programs and Events
May be Found at the Information Center

Wednesday 1st – Senior Saints Choir

Please welcome the Senior Saints Choir of Central United Methodist Church as members present a varied half-hour program of sacred, patriotic and Broadway music. 11am PH (W)

Thursday 2nd – National Day of Prayer Service: Love One Another

The first Thursday in May is the National Day of Prayer – a day when we are called to turn to God in prayer and meditation. This year's theme is Love One Another, based on the Biblical teachings of Christ in John 13:34, "Love one another. Just as I have loved you." Please join us today as we pray for each other and our nation. 10am PH (W)

Thursday 2nd – BTV Pen Pal Luncheon

Village residents and third- and fourth-graders from Butterfield Elementary School have partnered for several years in the BTV Pen Pal Program, which has proven to be educational, inspirational and fun. At the beginning of the 2018-19 school year, students met their pen pals at the BTV Pen Pal Ice Cream Social. Today is the grand finale of this year's program when we host students at the Lodge for a light lunch and delightful conversation. All residents in the Pen Pal program are invited. 11:30am LDG R

Thursday 2nd – Honky Tonk Dance with Jumpsuit Jamey

The danceable sounds of Honky Tonk country music will be center stage this evening with a live performance by Jumpsuit Jamey and The Can't Wait to Play Boys. Take a twirl down memory lane with favorites by artists like Ray Price and Hank Williams, and the sounds of steel and rhythm guitar, the fiddle and the bass. Invite your neighbors and friends to enjoy a night of refreshments and fun!
6:30-8:30pm PH R (W)

Monday 6th – The Guy Wilcox Trio

Sing along as Guy, his wife Carolyn, and his brother Jonah bring a rousing performance to the BTV stage. 7pm PH (W)

Tuesday 7th – Health and Wellbeing Seminar with Dr. Helen McElree: Discrimination and Conflict

Please join us today as Dr. McElree discusses what social factors lead to prejudice, discrimination and ultimately conflict. 2pm C (W)

Tuesday 7th – State Legislative Summary and Q&A with Rep. Denise Garner

State Representative Denise Garner of District 84, which includes Butterfield Trail Village and portions of Washington County, will host a post-legislative briefing with residents. Garner will discuss bills she sponsored, legislation that is now state law, and key actions that took place over the past three months during the regular session of the 92nd General Assembly. All are invited to this non-partisan constituent event. Come, ask questions and visit with your local state representative. 4pm LDG

Wednesday 8th – Suzuki Violin Group in Concert

Join violinist Miho Oda Sakon, artist in residence with the Suzuki Music School of Arkansas and principal second violin with the Symphony of Northwest Arkansas (SoNA), for a performance by her top students. 6:30pm PH (W)

Thursday 9th – BTV Foundation Garden Party Cookout and Concert with Still on the Hill

Springtime is here! And that means warmer weather, fresh air and the annual BTV Garden Party. Join us in the South Courtyard for an old-fashioned cookout, lawn games of croquet and horseshoes, and a nature-themed concert by everyone's favorite duo, Still on the Hill. These Ozark story-telling songwriters will take the Performance Hall stage to celebrate the birds, bees, bugs and beasts! The Garden Party is sponsored by the Butterfield Trail Village Foundation as a way to thank donors for supporting campus beautification projects past and present.

5pm Cookout SC 7pm Concert PH (W)

Friday 10th – BTV Museum Travel Series:

The Philbrook Presents Joel Daniel Phillips

The graphite drawings created by artist Joel Daniel Phillips are steeped in history. In his first solo museum show, It Felt Like the Future Was Now, Phillips expands upon a body of work exploring the burgeoning oil industry in Oklahoma and Southern California in the 1950s. His work has an ominous tone and reveals a past rarely considered. Admission is $7pp for seniors. Enjoy lunch at the Philbrook Museum restaurant, Kitchen 27, and walk through the magnificent gardens. Depart 8:30am R $ (W)

Friday 10th – Suzanne and Jim Present: Waltzes, Ballads and Airs

This husband and wife team will perform an exquisite program of dulcet selections: love songs of the 19th century, Appalachian ballads and haunting airs. The concert will feature works from America, Ireland, Scotland, Whales and England. Suzanne and Jim's musical dexterity is brought to the fore as they perform the dulcimer together at the same time. 7pm PH (W)

Saturday 11th – The Fort Smith Symphony Presents: It's Time For Pictures with Michael McHale

Pop music meets classical symphony with this exciting new work based on today's most popular music trends for full symphony orchestra. Michael McHale, Ireland's most sought after young classical artist, will perform an electrifying piano concerto full of driving rhythms and exuberant Russian flair. Newly created murals inspired by the music will be painted by art students at the University of Arkansas at Fort Smith under the mentorship of an Unexpected mural artist. For tickets, call the Fort Smith Symphony at (479) 452-7575 or visit fortsmithsymphony.org. Depart 6pm R $ (W)

Monday 13th – Mount Magazine State Park

Board the BTV bus for a visit to Mount Magazine State Park, where visitors can reach the highest point in Arkansas: 2,753 feet. People come for the sweeping views alone, but there is much to see and do at this unique spot. The Lodge at Mount Magazine is a place of relaxation, exploration and nature study. Following lunch at Skycrest Restaurant, we will be joined by a park interpreter who will host a tour of the grounds that includes history and sightseeing. Mount Magazine is home to watchable wildlife and a number of rare and endangered plants including the Ozark Chinkapin, Yellowwood and Maple-Leaf Oak. Depart 8:00am R $ (W)

Monday 13th – Archibald Yell: Soldier, Politician, Patriot

Join Marilyn Heifner, president of the Fayetteville Evergreen Cemetery Association, as she shares fascinating research on Arkansas' dynamic second governor, Archibald Yell. A larger-than-life figure who was also the state's first congressman and a Mexican War hero, Yell made his home and practiced law in Washington County. The cemetery association is restoring a monument in his honor. 7pm PH (W)

Friday 17th – Fulbright Friday: Faulkner Performing Arts Center Season Preview

Executive Director Nicole Cotton Leachman will discuss how the Faulkner PAC provides an educational, community-centered approach to performing arts. Her presentation includes a sneak peek of the 2019-20 season and how the volunteers can get involved with the arts center. 3pm C (W)

Monday 20th – Home Health Resources in the Community

Home health agencies will be on campus providing information on services that can help BTV residents retain their independence. Join us to learn more about a number of opportunities that are available. 9am – 12pm PH

Friday 24th – Transitioning to HCC: What You Need to Know

Butterfield social workers will discuss the ins and outs of transitioning to the BTV Health Care Center. Join Senior Director of Resident Services Patricia Poertner, along with Susan Willis and Cyndi Maddox, as they walk you step-by-step through the process. 2pm PH

Tuesday 28th – The Not-So-Scientific Approach to Brain Health with Jennifer Neill

Join Director of Fitness and Wellness Jennifer Neill for a lecture on popular supplements and their potential effectiveness on brain health. 2pm PH (W)

Wednesday 29th – BTV Chorus Presents Popular Hits of Cole Porter and George Gershwin

Join us today as the BTV Chorus performs hits like, "I Got Rhythm," "Strike Up the Band," "Night and Day," "Begin the Beguine," "Every Time We Say Goodbye" and many more. 2pm PH (W)

Thursday 30th – Orgiano Duo in Concert

Get ready as the Orgiano Duo takes the stage for an evening of organ and piano duets in every combination possible! The duo's members are Frode Gundersen, director of music and fine arts at Central United Methodist Church, and Scott Montgomery, the associate music director and organist at the church. These talented musicians formed the Orgiano Duo during a period of time when the church's sanctuary was without an organ. In its place, two baby grand pianos were placed in the sanctuary, and Gundersen and Montgomery played a number of duets. This special concert features full-length concertos, hymn-based works, and music from opera and Broadway. Don't miss it! 7pm PH (W)