

BUTTERFIELD

LIFE

EVENTS | PROGRAMS | ACTIVITIES

JUNE 2025

CALENDAR
OF EVENTS

Wednesday 4th and Thursday 5th – Guided Tour of Tyson Foods Research and Development Kitchen (two groups)

Participants will get a behind-the-scenes opportunity to see where the next big food idea starts by touring the Tyson Foods Discovery Center. This 100,000+ square foot facility is home to Tyson Foods’ 19 test kitchens, pilot plant facility and over 200 research and development team members. Both groups are limited to 20 guests. Depart 9am R (W)

Friday 6th – Specialty Shop Stop: City Supply & Fayetteville Mercantile

Visiting these two shops will brighten your day! Located just steps from each other, today offers a 2-for-1 specialty shop stop. City Supply is a modern-day mercantile featuring curated homestead provisions and goods with a nostalgic touch. The Fayetteville Mercantile is a gift shop specializing in locally handcrafted items made by over 40 local makers based right here in Northwest Arkansas. Depart 10am R (W)

Tuesday 10th – BTV Lifespans: Eight Health Benefits of Tea

Join BTV Lifespans as we explore eight surprising health benefits that can result from sipping tea. Bring your favorite cup and enjoy Afternoon Tea with us. 2pm V

Tuesday 10th – Take Five

Uncork a few delightful moments with us at Butterfield’s monthly wine social! Good friends, engaging conversations and tasty bites – all perfectly paired with house wine. It’s the perfect opportunity to unwind, connect and savor the simple pleasures of life. 4pm PH

Wednesday 11th – Summer Hamburger and Hot Dog Cookout

Let’s jumpstart the summer season with a juicy burger and hot dog feast. Sign up early for this FREE event. Dress for summer and bring a big, bright smile to help enhance the atmosphere of fun in the sun...indoors! Reservations are required. 11:30am - 1:30pm PH R

Thursday 12th – From Vienna to Rio with Schubert, Grainger, Gershwin, and Gonzaga featuring Slade Trammell, Pianist

This evening’s performance will be remembered for some time! Returning artist Slade Trammell, a pianist with a Master of Music, has been heard in concert halls across the United States and Europe, including local performances with the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra and the Roane Choral Society, as well as appearances in Salzburg, Paris and Toronto. Trammell studied under pianists Earl Wild, Ruth Slenczynska and David Brunell. A conductor with many years of learning under Serge Fournier, Trammell is a graduate of the European American Musical Alliance Summer Institute in Paris. Since 2012, Trammell has served as pianist for Roane Choral Society. 7pm PH (W)

Friday 13th – Har-Ber Village Museum and Picnic Lunch in Grove, OK

Spend a day learning about the past while creating memories in the present! Experience captivating area history on a self-guided tour featuring nearly 100 exhibits located on the shores of Grand Lake. Antiques, collectibles and reproductions are displayed to represent the era ranging from the mid-1800s to the early 1900s in our local four-state region of Oklahoma, Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas. Order your boxed lunch special from the BTV Bistro, pack a picnic lunch—or dine at the restaurant onsite. Admission is $15 per person, billed to the resident MSF. Depart 9am R $ (W$)

Saturday 14th - National Geographic Documentary: The Flagmakers

From National Geographic Documentary Films, Academy Award-winning director Cynthia Wade's The Flagmakers poses one of today’s most pressing questions: Who is the American flag for? Employee-owned Eder Flag in Oak Creek, Wis., sews and ships five million American flags a year. The flagmakers — locals, immigrants and refugees — stitch stars and stripes as they wrestle with identity and belonging. 2:30pm PH R

Monday 16th – Margarita Monday

Board the bus this afternoon for our monthly cocktail venture to La Huerta Mexican Grill and Cantina in Springdale. Order your favorite margarita, beer or mixed cocktail, then sit back, relax and enjoy this casual time with a fun Butterfield gang. 3pm R $ (W)

Wednesday 18th – Philbrook Museum of Art Exhibit: Japanese Samurai Armor and Dinner at The Cheesecake Factory

SAMURAI: Armor from the Collection of Ann and Gabriel Barbier-Mueller unveils the culture, lifestyle and art of the samurai warrior in Japanese society. The exhibition spans almost nine centuries of Samurai armor, from the Kamakura period (1185-1333) to the Edo period (1603-1868), and includes nearly 80 objects – full suits, helmets, weaponry, and full horse armor – all used for both combat and ceremonial purposes. Samurai belonged to the intellectual elite of Japanese society and practiced creative disciplines that often contrasted with the violent nature of battle, such as calligraphy and poetry. Enjoy learning about samurai history spanning more than seven hundred years. After our time at the Museum, we will enjoy dinner at The Cheesecake Factory! Depart 12pm R $20 (W$20)

Thursday 19th – Ace in the Hole Men’s Breakfast to Village Inn

The gentlemen are encouraged to join us today as we round folks up for a tasty, hot breakfast and coffee at a local favorite, Village Inn. Depart 8:15am R $ (W)

Thursday 19th – Resident Lecture Series: My Career Work in Graphic Imagery with Jan Gosnell

Resident Jan Gosnell will present digital examples of his artwork and discuss his development as a draftsman and painter. Jan received a B.F.A. from the University of Texas and an M.F.A. from the University of Arkansas. His professional background includes that of picture painter, university art instructor, gallery owner, commercial art director, movie sketch artist, editorial cartoonist and author-illustrator. 2:30pm PH (W) PH (W)

Friday 20th – Specialty Shop Stop: The Cottage Gardens Tea Room

You’re not going to want to miss summer teatime at the new Cottage Gardens Tea Room, one of the latest hidden gems to be found in Northwest Arkansas. Residents will enjoy a quaint visit to the area’s only tea room, where you’ll get the chance to indulge in a traditional afternoon tea with all the requisite delectable treats. Oh, and we should mention this tea room offers over 25 premium loose-leaf teas! Don’t miss a charming outing in a memorable setting, located in Highfill. 10:15am R $ (W)

Monday 23rd - Ice Cream Social

Cool off with a chilling bowl of ice cream with all the fixin’s. 2:30pm PH R

Wednesday 25th – NEW Shopping Trip to Sam’s Club!

We are beginning a once-a-month shopping trip to Sam’s Club. Sign up for transportation on the fourth Wednesday of each month for this new regular trip. Depart 10am R

Thursday 26th – BTV Foundation Stage Series Presents: Natasha Korsakova, International Violinist in Concert

The Butterfield Trail Village Foundation is pleased to announce the return of international violinist and author, Natasha Korsakova. This lovely award-winning artist has appeared in many of the world’s most prestigious concert halls, performing with the Orchestra Sinfonica di Milano Giuseppe Verdi, the Vienna Chamber Orchestra and the Regina Royal Symphony. Korsakova was selected as Artist of the Year in Chile and Italy. Her repertoire includes over 60 concertos for violin and orchestra, as well as countless works of chamber music. Of Greek-Russian origin, she was born into a musical family in Moscow. Her first teacher was her grandfather, Boris Korsakova—and she received direction from her father, the well-known Russian violin virtuoso Andrej Korsakova. In her spare time, she has authored several crime novels set in locations around the world involving classical musicians. This evening’s performance, Sound Dialogs: Mozart, Vieuxtemps and Brahms, features Ms. Korsakova on violin and Erik Lawrence on piano.

Limited resident guests and Carriage Club spots are available for $25 per person. 6pm Pre-Concert Hors d’oeuvres Social 7pm Concert PH R (W$)

For more information about programs and events, please contact Riki Stamps at (479) 695-8073 or Michael Burks at (479) 695-8072.