TRAIL VILLAGE

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Friday 2nd – Immunizations and Older Adults with Steve Johnson, MD FACP
Dr. Steve Johnson, a retired Fayetteville Diagnostic Clinic physician and former UAMS instructor, presents on immunizations for adults, especially older adults. He will discuss preventable infectious diseases and recommended vaccines. 2:30pm PH KW

Friday 2nd – A Tribute to Grandma Moses through Music and Art featuring the C4 Clarinet Quartet
This evening’s presentation by the C4 Clarinet Quartet celebrates the vibrant spirit and enduring legacy of Anna Mary Robertson, “Grandma Moses,” whose beloved folk art captured the heart of American rural life. Through a carefully curated multimedia slideshow paired with live chamber music, the quartet’s selections echo the warmth, nostalgia, and rhythmic charm of early Americana. This concert experience transforms memories of simple, everyday moments into timeless masterpieces, inviting the audience into her sunlit landscapes where the enduring beauty of community, tradition, and late-life creative rebirth beautifully harmonize on stage. Our visiting artists include Abigail Leder, Deborah Shaw, Manchusa Loungsagroong, and Janice Bengston. 7pm PH KW

Saturday 3rd – Ozark Folkways Fiber Fest in Winslow
Celebrate fiber arts at Ozark Folkways’ Fiber Fest in Winslow. Enjoy exhibits, local vendors, demonstrations, workshops, a contest, and a silent auction. Depart 9am R KW

Monday 5th – Retirement Party for Roger Coker
Join us for a retirement celebration fit for a king, honoring Roger Coker, affectionately known as “Podger” to his grandchildren. Roger is more than just a BTV Excursion Driver; he has made a lasting impact on everyone he meets with his infectious personality, genuine laughter, and caring heart. We invite everyone to celebrate Roger’s incredible career and the many lives he has touched. Enjoy delicious cake, refreshing punch, and plenty of laughter as we share memories and spend time with him. Congratulations on your retirement, Roger! 2pm PH KW

Tuesday 6th – Positively Pink Luncheon Honoring Survivors and Warriors Inspiring Hope and Raising Breast Cancer Awareness
Join us for the 2026 Positively Pink Luncheon, honoring Breast Cancer Awareness Month and celebrating the courage of survivors and warriors. Enjoy an inspiring afternoon with keynote speaker and survivor Gaye Cypert, who will share stories of hope and the importance of awareness. This luncheon is a chance to celebrate survivors, remember those we’ve lost, and support those currently facing breast cancer. Survivors and guests are warmly invited as we unite in education, compassion, and hope. Wear pink, bring a friend, and celebrate life! 11am PH R KW

Tuesday 6th – Introducing the New BTV Trishaw Program!
“Freedom!” a lady cries out loud as she sits in a circle of friends at a continuing care retirement community. The group was asked to share memories of cycling and what it means to them. Everyone in the group nodded and agreed that cycling is about freedom, joy, and adventure, which can be hard to come by if you’re not as independent as you once were. From the first bike as a child to the first solo adventures in the neighborhood and longer rides into cities and nature, this freedom is now within reach for Butterfield Trail Village residents thanks to donors who have financed two Trishaws, a cycle powered by a pilot peddler, and seating for two riders. Join the Trishaw Committee led by resident Beth Vaughan-Wrobel and Jennifer Neill, Wellness Director, as they introduce the Trishaw Program planned for launch this spring! 7pm PH KW

Thursday 8th and Friday 9th – The 2026 Annual BTV Arts & Crafts Fair
Join us for the BTV Arts & Crafts Fair in the Performance Hall! Discover a vibrant celebration of handmade creations, from textiles and pottery to stained glass and fiber arts. Meet talented artisans and find unique pieces to take home. Whether you’re an art lover, a crafter, or just looking to enjoy a fun day, there’s something for everyone! Artisans interested in exhibiting can sign up at the Transportation Desk for more details. 9am-3pm PH KW

Friday 9th – Diner’s Club to Mythos Mediterranean Cuisine in Joplin, Missouri
Experience world-class service and a stunning atmosphere at Mythos, an award-winning restaurant featured in “Show Me the Ozarks” Magazine. The versatile menu includes hand-cut Angus beef steaks, fresh seafood, unique chicken dishes, and Greek favorites like moussaka, pastichio, lamb chops, and gyro. Over the past 17 years, Mythos has evolved into a Mediterranean-inspired menu, honoring their Greek heritage while expanding to include a broader range of European dishes, all made from scratch. 3:15pm R S KW

Tuesday 13th – 40 and More BTV Parade and Lunch!
2026 is the year to celebrate! Butterfield turns 40, and our country turns 250! Find your sidewalk spot and enjoy a resident-sponsored parade featuring U.S. Veterans, decorated floats and golf carts by employees and residents, vintage cars, unicyclists, a stilt walker, a live Cajun Band, and more! The campus parade will begin at Village Homes, circle the main building, and end at the Lodge. Residents are invited to the Performance Hall for a cozy fall Chili lunch with delicious sides and live entertainment by the BTV Line Dancers and new BTV Singers! 10:30am Campus Parade 11:30am Lunch PH R

Wednesday 14th – BTV Foundation Stage Series Presents: Sounds of Latin America featuring Marcela Pinilla and Isaac Eicher
The BTV Foundation is excited to sponsor tonight’s performance by Marcela Pinilla and Isaac Eicher, a dynamic duo blending American mandolin with Latin music. Colombian-born Pinilla started her career in Bogotá and has performed at notable venues in the U.S., while two-time national mandolin champion Eicher from Tulsa has expanded his bluegrass roots into various genres since moving to Nashville. Together, they offer an engaging show that appeals to fans of Latin music, jazz, and creative artistry. 6:30pm PH KW

Thursday 15th – The 2026 General Election Statewide Ballot Issues Explained
Katie Teague, County Extension Agent-Staff Chair with the University of Arkansas System Cooperative Extension Service will help define the statewide issues on the 2026 November ballot. 10:30am PH KW

Tuesday 20th – Margarita Tuesday! No Way Jose’s
Who says margaritas are just for Monday? Let’s make Tuesday a day to celebrate at No Way Jose’s! Join us for refreshing drinks, delicious food, and a fun atmosphere. Bring your friends and try something new—Tuesdays deserve a fiesta too! Depart 3pm R S KW

Wednesday 21st – Arkansas Missouri Railroad Fall Excursion to Van Buren, AR
Join us on a scenic journey through the Ozark Mountains from Springdale to historic Van Buren, Arkansas, aboard the Arkansas & Missouri Railroad. Experience restored 1920s vintage passenger coaches as we navigate river valleys, high trestles, and a quarter-mile tunnel. The friendly conductors will share stories about the area’s history. Enjoy three hours in Van Buren for lunch, shopping, and exploring the historic streets! Depart 7:20am R S KW

Saturday 24th – 24th Annual All British Car and Cycle Show!
Take a stroll through the U of A Agri Park during the Annual British Car and Cycle Show! The Brits in the Ozarks is Northwest Arkansas’ premier all-British car and motorcycle show, featuring over 150 classic and modern British vehicles in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Whether you’re a collector, enthusiast, or first-time visitor, Brits in the Ozarks offers one of the region’s premier British car shows. Enjoy food and drinks from various food trucks. 12:15pm R KW

Saturday 24th – The Music Depot Presents: Sinatra ‘n More, A Tribute Show
Top local musicians will perform a live tribute to the greats, including Frank Sinatra, Nat King Cole, and Etta James in a lovely auditorium located in downtown Rogers. 1pm R S KW

Friday 30th – Residents’ Trick-or-Treat Night
Trick-or-Treat! Residents are invited to host a Trick-or-Treat event for their grandchildren and employees’ children (ages 12 and under). Residents are invited to represent their living area distributing treats and enjoying the creative costumes and visiting with the kids. If you would like to participate or just donate candy, stop by the Transportation Desk! 6:30-8pm PH R
