Wednesday 2nd - Happy Hollow Recycling Processing Center of Fayetteville (Trip 2)

Fayetteville is on the cutting edge of recycling and today we have an opportunity to visit the processing center to see first-hand the operations of the facility. Director Brian Pugh will guide this 2-hour walking tour, as we join a high school group. This is a great opportunity to view the scale of one of many centers around the country - and interact with young people who are learning and committing to RETHINK, REUSE, REDUCE and RECYCLE. Space is limited to 32 people.

Depart 9am R

Wednesdays in November - New Lecture Series: Lost Worlds of South America

The dramatic terrain of South America is one of the great and thrilling frontiers of archaeology. Buried by the centuries on soaring mountain slopes and beneath arid deserts and lush jungles, the remains of extraordinary, majestic civilizations—many completely unknown until recent decades—are now coming to light and raising tantalizing questions about what else may be awaiting discovery. This 24-lecture series will be led by Professor Edwin Barnhart, director of the Maya Exploration Center. 7pm CH1961

Friday 4th - Crystal Bridges Museum Presents: American Fashion: From Grit to Glamour

Cowboy boots. Bathing suits. Sneakers. Hollywood gowns. Denim jeans. Fashioning America: Grit to Glamour is Crystal Bridges' first exhibition dedicated to fashion and the first to present American fashion as a powerful emblem of global visual culture, amplified by movies, television, red carpets and social media. From dresses worn by first ladies to art-inspired garments to iconic fashion moments that defined a generation, Fashioning America conveys uniquely American expressions of innovation between video, imagery and over 100 garments and accessories selected from across two centuries of fashion. Admission is $12pp. Depart 11am

Friday 4th - NWA Gridiron Comedy Show

After a 2-year Covid-related performance hiatus, the fabulously irreverent NWA Gridiron comedy show is relocating to the Butterfield Performance Hall! This hilarious evening of spoofs on the past year's news, cultural trends, and journalism itself is written and performed by local journalists - with a theme of Keep Fayetteville Funny (NWA Too). Days before the upcoming elections, the show pokes fun at politics, ranging from local to national topics. Butterfield residents and their guests, staff and Carriage Club (CC members only, please, to ensure space) will have a very special opportunity to attend this BTV-only Friday performance. If you have not already purchased tickets for the Friday performance, visit nwagridiron.com/friday-night-tickets-for-sale/ to buy them online or scan this special QR code.

Thursday 10th – Salute to U.S. Veterans Featuring the Singing Men of Arkansas

Tonight's special event is set aside to honor those who have served and continue to serve our nation. Join us as we recognize and honor U.S. Veterans through photographs, music and personal stories. This is the time to lift up veterans and their unwavering dedication to our homeland and democracy. The Singing Men of Arkansas will renew our patriotism with a rousing performance, so please join us. 7pm PH (W)

Friday 11th – Homespun Hobbies

Our BTV crafters and artisans are back and going strong! After a season of break, several residents have rekindled the fire for our Homespun Hobbies group – which will commence meeting the 2nd Friday of each month. Bring your quilting, craft, sewing, etc. to the Villa Room for a time of fellowship with other crafters. 9am-12pm V

Tuesday 15th – Samaritan Shop Donation Day

Clear some space and help support the Samaritan Community Center's mission of "Serving the hurting and hungry of Northwest Arkansas with dignity and compassion." The nonprofit will be collecting gently-used clothing, household items and furniture for resale in its thrift stores. The Performance Hall will be the collection point for bagged or boxed items; cottage and Village Home residents can place items in the carport or garage. To participate, please pick up an important information sheet from the Transportation Desk prior to donation day.

8:30am-11:30am PH

Tuesday 15th – Private Tour of the University of Arkansas Museum

After residents enjoyed an October presentation by Laurel Lamb, Curator of Education and Engagement for the UA Museum, we got busy scheduling an onsite tour. This Arkansas treasure maintains extensive collections across the fields of archeology, ethnography, geology, history and zoology for exhibition, research and education. Today, Lamb will guide guests on a private tour of the museum, located in its new facility on Hatch Avenue. The two tours are limited to 12 guests each.

Depart 10am and 2pm R

Tuesday 15th – Chili Supper

Few things are more comforting than a big bowl of chili on a cold November day. Stop by this evening for delicious chili and add-ons, drinks, dessert and great conversation with friends! 4-6pm PH R

Wednesday 16th – Meet A Village Resident with Riki Stamps – Guest: Margaret Whillock

Born in Altus, Arkansas, philanthropist Margaret Whillock is a University of Arkansas graduate and successful businesswoman. She spent time in the White House under the Clinton Administration and will share her lifelong adventures with Riki Stamps in a personal interview. 12pm CH1961 (Airs again on Friday, 18th)

Thursday 17th – Village Tours Presents: Biblical Greece – May 2023 (Informational Meeting)

If you've ever considered visiting Greece to experience the historical, cultural, scenic and spiritual backdrop of one of the world's most incredible places, traveling in the footsteps of Apostle Paul where he sowed the seeds of Christianity, don't miss this information session about our plans for an upcoming Butterfield Tour. Destinations include Athens, Delphi, Peloponnese, Corinth, Galaxidi, Nafplio and Santorini Island. 2pm PH

Friday 18th – Fulbright Friday: Leigh Sparks, Department of English

Join Sparks, English instructor and Assistant Director of the Graduate Program in English, as she discusses the flexibility of an English graduate degree and how M.A./Ph.D. graduates are well-prepared for diverse career opportunities. 3pm PH (W)

Monday 21st – Margarita Monday

Board the bus today for a short trip to San Miguel's Mexican Grill and Cantina for a great-tasting cocktail, made fresh just like you like it! Depart 3pm R $ (W)

Friday, 25th – Holiday Football Watch Party

Razorback Football teams take on the Missouri Tigers in the final game of the regular season. Join your neighbors in the Performance Hall today for a team-cheering event to help the Hogs win against the Tigers. TBA PH (W)

Saturday 26th – Erik Lawrence in Concert: Bach's Goldberg Variations

Erik Lawrence began his Doctoral studies in Collaborative Piano at UC Santa Barbara. He has performed with the Topeka Symphony Orchestra and the Lake Charles Symphony. He will perform The Goldberg Variations, a musical composition for the piano by Johann Sebastian Bach first published in 1941. Lawrence is the grandson of resident Doni Merbitz. 3pm PH (W)

Tuesday, 29th – Americans and the Holocaust Traveling Exhibition Coming to U of A Libraries

Mullins Library, the centerpiece of the University of Arkansas Libraries, is one of 50 U.S. libraries that have been selected to host Americans and the Holocaust, a traveling exhibition from the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum that examines the motives, pressures and fears that shaped Americans' responses to Nazism, war and genocide in Europe during the 1930s and 1940s. Depart 2pm R (W)
