

BUTTERFIELD

NOVEMBER 2025

LIFE

EVENTS | PROGRAMS | ACTIVITIES

CALENDAR

OF EVENTS

Wednesday 5th – American Red Cross Blood Drive
The American Red Cross provides emergency assistance, disaster relief and education. Part of the world’s largest volunteer network, it depends on blood donations to save lives in our community. Today’s blood drive is seeking donors in good health who weigh at least 110 pounds and feel well. Please consult your doctor first if you have a chronic condition such as diabetes. Together, we can make a difference! Appointment sign-ups are at the Transportation Desk. Please contact Riki Stamps with questions. 10am-2pm PH R (W)

Thursday 6th – Resident Lecture Series with Bill “Mitch” Mitchell, Former CEO of Walton Arts Center Join us for a special edition of our Resident Lecture Series with Bill “Mitch” Mitchell, former CEO of the Walton Arts Center. In the early 90’s, under Mitch’s visionary leadership, the Walton Arts Center expanded its programming, built lasting community partnerships, and became a hub where the arts thrive — from Broadway productions and concerts to educational initiatives that inspire future generations. Mitch’s work reflects a deep commitment to making the arts accessible and meaningful for everyone in the community. Enjoy the insight, inspiration and stories behind one of NWA’s most celebrated cultural institutions. 2:30pm PH (W)

Thursday 6th – Big Screen Film: Up Among the Hills, The Story of Fayetteville by Larry Foley with Special Appearance by Archibald Yell
This beautifully crafted film created by Larry Foley brings to life our city’s colorful past, vibrant culture and those who helped shape it — from pioneers to visionaries. Adding extra excitement to the evening, we’ll enjoy a special appearance by Archibald Yell, one of Arkansas’ most legendary figures, stepping out of history to share his own perspective on the town he helped build. 6:45pm PH (W)

Thursday 6th – John Rutter’s Requiem Concert at Central United Methodist Church Experience the sublime beauty of John Rutter’s Requiem, performed by the combined choirs of St. Paul’s Episcopal, Central United Methodist, First United Presbyterian and Grace Episcopal. Don’t miss this evening of breathtaking music and spiritual reflection. Depart 6:15pm R (W)

Friday 7th – Arkansas Ale Trail Flyway Brewing Co. Discover the bold flavors of Flyway Brewing Co. on the Arkansas Ale Trail! From crisp craft beers to unique seasonal brews, it’s a must when exploring our thriving craft beer scene. Depart 3pm R $ (W)

Monday 10th – Unified by Service: A Tribute to Our Country’s Veterans Three cheers for the Red, White, and Blue! While the U.S. military is not a single unified entity but six distinct and coequal service branches, “unified by service” refers to coordination under the Department of Defense for joint operations defending our Constitution. Veterans share experiences of service connecting them in ways only they can understand and appreciate. Join Riki Stamps, Director of Programs and Events, to uplift all veterans with praise and honor with a formal presentation, including a patriotic performance by Chris and Sarah Jones. Families and friends are invited to join. 7pm PH (W)

Tuesday, 11th – BTV Lifespans: An Hour of Gratitude & Appreciation
Please join us to pause, reflect and celebrate our blessings. Open to all residents, you’re invited to share in joy, encouragement and fellowship as we celebrate this month of Thanksgiving. 2pm V

Tuesday 11th – Take Five – What’s The Buzz? Take Five began years ago with a simple idea: a cocktail hour to foster community. Join us for house wines and snacks as we catch up with old friends and make new ones — good wine is better when shared! BTV newcomers are encouraged to join this fascinating crowd. 4pm PH R

Wednesday 12th – Dementia Education and Applications with Tim Lindsey, Sr. Director of Visiting Angels
Visiting Angels is a national home care agency providing assistance to seniors and adults – with expert experience with dementia. Please join us for two important sessions:
Session 1: Understanding Dementia – Foundational knowledge about dementia: what it is, common types and how it typically presents. Learn to recognize early signs and symptoms, understand the diagnostic process and gain insight into how dementia affects daily life and behavior. 10am – 11:30am PH (W)
Session 2: Caring for Individuals with Dementia – Building on Session 1, explore practical techniques for supporting residents with dementia. Topics include effective caregiving strategies, importance of consistent routines, use of “All About Me” tools to personalize care, and an overview of person-centered approaches to dementia care. 1:30pm – 3pm PH (W)

Wednesday 12th – UA Music Department Oboe Concert, Directed by Dr. Theresa Delaplain
The University of Arkansas Oboe Studio will perform a recital of works for oboe and piano, with collaborative pianist Kristin Harwell. These U of A music major students study under Professor Theresa Delaplain, and will play music by Alessandro Marcello, Gustav Schreck, Jan Kalliwoda, Madeleine Dring, Michael Head and Eric Ewazen. 6:30pm PH (W)

Thursday 13th – Filmmaker Larry Foley presents: James Burton Blair: Nothing but the Truth, The Improbable Life of an Arkansas Giant
Witness a new film by Larry Foley, career journalist, documentary filmmaker and U of A professor in the School of Journalism and Strategic Media. In his 90 years, Jim Blair has lived large. He’s befriended, mentored and worked with a rich cask of monumental Arkansas and national decision makers, including business tycoons, politicians – and even a U.S. president. He’s a man of infinite passions, especially books, art, law, education and politics. 2:30pm PH (W)

Friday 14th – Mt. Sequoyah Festival of Trees Event: Merry Mingle This night of festive fun features the SoNA Singers, delightful cocktails and merry mingling in the Millar Lodge – re-imagined as Narnia. Depart 5:15pm R (W)
Call 443-4531 for tickets.

For more information about programs and events, please contact Riki Stamps at (479) 695-8073 or Michael Burks at (479) 695-8072.

Saturday 15th – Historic Son’s Chapel Annual Fall Fair Nestled just east of Fayetteville, Son’s Chapel is a timeless symbol since 1848 of community and craftsmanship. It served as a chapel and cemetery, becoming a gathering place for worship, education and fellowship. Hop on the bus to this precious little chapel during their annual Fall Fair, featuring yarns, fabrics, quilts and crafts. Depart 10am R (W)

Monday 17th – Margarita Monday at La Huerta
Margarita Monday = great vibes, bold flavors and the best cocktails in town! Sip on handcrafted margaritas — from classic lime to creative seasonal blends — paired with delicious appetizers. La Huerta’s lively atmosphere, friendly staff and great specials make Monday a celebration. 3pm R $ (W)

Wednesday 19th – Learn and Lunch: University of Arkansas Mullins’ Library Special Collections, Fulbright Presents: Historic Fayetteville Join Katrina Windon, Collections Manager with the UA Mullins Library Special Collections for an engaging presentation on Fayetteville’s fascinating history. Collections contains the University Archives documenting U of A’s history and the Arkansas Collection, comprised of local history in print materials like books, periodicals and maps. Discover rare documents, fascinating stories and local treasures – followed by a light lunch. 10am PH R $15 MSF (W) $15

Wednesday 19th – You and Your Health Series: Stroke and Its Various Presentations Join Safina Ali, MD and Griffin Chatterly, DO for Stroke and Its Various Presentations – to help you recognize warning signs, understand symptoms and take steps to protect your health. 2pm PH

Thursday 20th – Ace in the Hole Men’s Breakfast – The Buttered Biscuit (Fayetteville)
The perfect way to kick off your morning is with a delicious breakfast, great conversation and fellowship! Whether it’s hearty biscuits, savory favorites or just good company, we’ll enjoy a morning designed just for men who like food, friendship and fun! 8:15am R $ (W)

Thursday 20th – UA Flute Ensemble Concert
Part of the U of A’s music program, the University of Arkansas Flute Ensemble is directed by Dr. Christina Ballatori. The ensemble returns to the BTV stage with arrangements including alto, bass and standard flutes. Let’s help them feel welcome! 7pm PH (W)

Monday 24th – A Fun Night of Music with the Sequoyah Ukulele Society! The Sequoyah Ukulele Society is a low-key ukulele jam group that loves to play! Join hostess Helen Kwiatkowski and her counterparts for an evening of uniquely fun and entertaining music! 7pm PH (W)

